

DESCRIPTION

Health System Specialist will provide technical support to the Ministry of Health (MOH) to strengthen the institutionalisation of the integrated community case management (ICCM) programme. They will also support integration and harmonisation of ICCM2, Home management of malaria (HMM) and Boma Health Initiative (BHT) processes and tools in line with MoH systems.

The successful candidate will have:

- Degree in Nursing, Medicine or pharmacy
- Master's degree in public health, epidemiology or similar field
- Experience in public health project management with demonstrated experience supporting the implementation of
- large Scale projects
- Experience in supporting health system strengthening and/or maternal and child health projects
- Experience implementing Community-based health service delivery programmes such as integrated community
- case management.
- Experience working closely with senior government officials
- Experience on quality assurance systems
- Excellent written and spoken English skills
- Proficient in MS Office Software
- Excellent people management skills
- Strong negotiation skills
- Strong technical skills in health system strengthening, maternal and child health
- Is a data-driven decision maker

We are going to be reviewing CVs and interview on an ongoing basis so early applications are encouraged. We reserve the right to close the vacancy before the closing date.

In your application please specify that you found out about this opportunity on Developmentaid.org.

Veuillez indiquer dans votre candidature que vous avez consulté cette offre sur le Site Web DevelopmentAid. Org.

Applications and updated CV should be submitted to

(<https://recruitment.malariaconsortium.org/Vacancy.aspx?MenuID=6Dqy3cKID0g=>)